What's Included in the Fees

At Charterhouse Almaty, tuition fees are designed to reflect the all-inclusive nature of our educational provision. Every pupil benefits from a rich and extended school day, combining academic excellence, co-curricular breadth and exceptional pastoral care.

- Breakfast, lunch and snacks provided throughout the extended school day
- A daily programme of co-curricular activities for all pupils, fully integrated within the school timetable and led by Charterhouse staff
- Pastoral care, counselling and wellbeing support throughout each school year
- Books, copybooks and stationery, together with access to digital learning tools (excluding IGCSE and Sixth Form textbooks)
- English as an Additional Language (EAL) provision
- Comprehensive medical, security and safeguarding services within a safe and caring environment

Additional information

Certain optional activities provided by external co-curricular partners, individual instrumental music lessons, school transport, educational trips, examination fees and international expeditions may incur additional charges. All such costs will be communicated clearly in advance.

A distinctive value proposition

Charterhouse Almaty offers families exceptional value within its fee structure.

Our extended school day ensures that every child participates in a full programme of co-curricular activities each day, without the need for separate sign-ups or additional costs. This model enables pupils to thrive academically, socially and personally within a balanced and purposeful daily routine all within the normal school timetable.
